

BYLAW 002/2012

A BYLAW OF THE TOWN OF CHOICELAND IN THE PROVINCE OF SASKATCHEWAN TO REGULATE AND CONTROL DANGEROUS ANIMALS

Now therefore the council of the Town of Choiceland in the Province of Saskatchewan enacts as follows:

1. SHORT TITLE

This Bylaw may be cited as “The Dangerous Animals Bylaw.”

2. PURPOSE

The purpose of this bylaw is as follows:

1. To promote the safety, health, and welfare of people, and protection of people and property in the Town of Choiceland; and
2. To ensure the humane treatment of animals by regulating and prohibiting the keeping of dangerous animals within the Town of Choiceland.

3. DEFINITIONS

In this Bylaw:

1. “Act” means The Municipalities Act;
2. “Animal Control Officer” means a person employed by the Town of Choiceland to enforce the provisions of this Bylaw;
3. “Town” means the Town of Choiceland;
4. “Judge” means a Judge in the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan or a Justice of the Peace;
5. “Owner” includes:
 - a. A person who keeps, possesses, or harbors an animal to which this Bylaw applies;
 - b. The person responsible for the custody of a minor where the minor is the owner of an animal to which this Bylaw applies; but does not include
 - c. A Veterinarian registered pursuant to The Veterinarians Act, 1987 who is keeping or harboring an animal to which this Bylaw applies for the prevention, diagnosis or treatment of a disease or injury to the animal;
 - d. The Town of Choiceland with respect to an animal shelter or impoundment facility;
6. “Provocation” means an act done intentionally for the purpose of provoking an animal to which this Bylaw applies.

4. APPLICATION

This Bylaw shall apply to mammals, reptiles, birds and bees in the Town of Choiceland.

5. DANGEROUS ANIMALS

1. An animal is dangerous where it is proved that:
 - a. The animal, without provocation in a vicious or menacing manner, chased or approached a person or domestic animal in an apparent attitude of attack;
 - b. The animal has a known propensity, tendency or disposition to attack without provocation, to cause injury or to otherwise threaten the safety of persons or domestic animals;

- c. The animal has, without provocation, bitten, inflicted injury, assaulted or otherwise attacked a person or domestic animal.
2. For the purposes of this Section, an animal is presumed not to have been provoked, in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

6. EXEMPTION FOR GUARD DOGS

No dog shall be considered dangerous where an action described in section 5 occurred while the dog was:

1. Acting in the performance of police work; or
2. Working as a guard dog on commercial property:
 - a. Securely enclosed on property by a fence or other barrier sufficient to prevent the escape of the dog and the entry of children of tender years; and
 - b. Defending that property against a person who was committing an offence.

7. FIGHTING ANIMALS CONSIDERED DANGEROUS

Notwithstanding the generality of section 5, an animal is dangerous where it is proved that the animal is owned primarily or in part for the purpose of fighting or is trained for fighting.

8. DANGEROUS ANIMAL HEARINGS

1. If a complaint is made by a member of the public, or a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that an animal is dangerous, a Judge shall hold a hearing to determine if, based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing, the animal is, in fact, dangerous;
2. Notice of the hearing referred to in Subsection 1 shall be served upon the owner of the animal;
3. In the case of an owner who is an individual, the notice referred to in Subsection 2 shall be served:
 - a. By delivering it personally to the owner; or
 - b. If the owner cannot conveniently be found, by leaving it for the owner at the owner's residence with a person at that residence who appears to be at least 18 years of age;
4. In the case of an owner that is a corporation, the notice referred to in Subsection 2 shall be served:
 - a. By sending it by registered mail to the registered office of the corporation; or
 - b. By delivering it personally to the manager, secretary or other executive officer of the corporation of the person in charge of any office or other place where the corporation carries on business in Saskatchewan;
5. Where an owner does not appear at the time and place appointed for the hearing after having been notified of that time and place, the Judge may proceed ex parte to hear and determine the proceedings in the absence of the owner as fully and effectively as if the owner had appeared;
6. If the Judge is satisfied, on the evidence, that the animal is dangerous, the Judge shall make an order embodying all of the following items:
 - a. If the owner removes the animal from the owner's property, the owner shall leash or cage it in accordance with the criteria prescribed in Section 16 and keep it under direct control and supervision;

- b. In the case of a dog, if the owner removes the animal from the owner's property, the owner shall, in addition to the conditions set out in Subsection a, muzzle the animal; and ensure the animal is secure at all times;
 - c. The owner shall inoculate the animal against rabies in accordance with the provisions of Section 17;
 - d. The owner shall report the sale or other disposition of the animal to a designated officer appointed pursuant to Section 23;
 - e. Where the animal is moved to a different city or municipality, the owner shall notify the clerk of that city or municipality;
 - f. Where the animal is to be sold or given away, the owner shall:
 - i. Notify any prospective owner that the animal has been declared dangerous, before it is sold or given away; and
 - ii. Notify a designated officer appointed pursuant to Section 23 of the name, address and telephone number of any new owner of the animal;
 - g. If the animal is unlicensed, the owner shall, at the owner's expense and within ten days of the date of the order, purchase the requisite license for the animal;
7. An order pursuant to Subsection 6 may also include any or all of the following terms:
- a. The owner shall keep the animal in an enclosure which complies with the criteria prescribed in Section 19;
 - b. The owner shall obtain and keep in effect liability insurance in an amount of not less than $300,000.00 for any bodily injury to or death of any person or domestic animal, or for damage to property, caused by the animal;
 - c. The owner shall display a sign, which complies with the criteria prescribed in Section 20, on the owner's property warning of the presence of the animal and shall continue to display that sign in good condition so long as the animal is present on the property;
 - d. The owner shall have the animal spayed, neutered or sterilized;
 - e. The owner shall take such other measures, as the Judge considers appropriate.
8. Notwithstanding Subsection 6, a Judge may, in the alternative, order that the animal be humanely destroyed at the owner's expense and shall issue directions with respect to the destruction or other disposition;
9. Where an order has been made pursuant to Subsection 7 against the owner, the owner may apply to the Judge who made the order for an order that compliance with the provisions of Subsection 7b be waived;
10. On an application pursuant to Subsection 9, the Judge may waive compliance with Subsection 7b, on any terms and conditions that the Judge considers reasonable, where the Judge is satisfied that the owner is unable to comply with the requirements of that clause for a reason other than the owner's financial circumstances;
11. A person desiring to appeal an order pursuant to this Section shall, within seven days of the order being appealed from, file a notice of appeal with Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, and the provisions of Part XXVII of the Criminal Code apply with any necessary modification.

9. OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

1. Any person who owns an animal for the purpose of fighting, or trains, torments, badgers, baits, or otherwise uses an animal for the purpose of causing or encouraging the animal to make unprovoked attacks on persons, or domestic animals is guilty of an offence;
2. Any person who displays a prescribed sign warning of the presence of a dangerous animal, and who is not acting in accordance with an order made pursuant to Section 8-7c, or has not received the permission of the Town of Choiceland to display the sign is guilty of an offence;
3. Any person who does not comply with any part of an order made against him or her pursuant to Section 8-6, 8-7, or 8-8 is guilty of an offence;
4. Any person, who owns an animal that, without provocation, attacks, assaults, wounds, bites, injures or kills a person or domestic animal, is guilty of an offence;
5. A person who is guilty of an offence pursuant to this Section is liable on summary conviction:
 - a. In the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $10,000.00, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both;
 - b. In the case of a corporation, to a fine not exceeding $25,000.00, or imprisonment of the directors of the corporation for not more than one year, or both;
6. In addition to imposing the penalty under Subsection 5, the convicting Judge shall make an order embodying the requirements of Section 8-6, 8-7, and 8-8.

10. ORDER BINDS SUBSEQUENT OWNER

An order issued pursuant to Section 8 or 9 continues to apply if the animal is sold or given to a new owner or is moved to a different municipality.

11. EXECUTION OF DESTRUCTION ORDER

1. Unless the owner otherwise agrees, every order for destruction of an animal shall state that it shall not be implemented for eight days;
2. Where an appeal is taken against an order for the destruction of an animal, the application of the order is stayed pending the disposition of the appeal;
3. Regardless of the outcome of the appeal, the owner shall be responsible for the payment of the costs of impoundment of the animal pending the hearing.

12. RETURN OF ANIMAL

Where the Judge on appeal overturns the order for destruction of the animal, the animal shall be released to the owner after the owner has paid costs of impoundment of the animal pending the hearing.

13. DESTRUCTION BY PEACE OFFICERS

1. A peace officer as defined by the Criminal Code may destroy any animal that the officer finds injuring or viciously attacking a person or domestic animal;
2. Where the officer acted in good faith, a peace officer who destroys an animal pursuant to Subsection 1 is not liable to the owner for the value of the animal.

14. ENTRY, SEARCH AND IMPOUNDMENT

1. If a peace officer is defined by the Criminal Code or a designated officer has reasonable grounds to believe that an animal is dangerous or has been ordered to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of, is in or on any premises, the peace officer or designated officer may enter the premises and search for, and impound the animal in accordance with Section 378 of The Municipalities Act pending outcome of the hearing referred to under Section 8 hereof;

2. In the event that an animal is declared to be dangerous, the owner shall pay any and all fees for impounding the animal and all destruction fees as may be billed.

15. CHARGES MAY BE ADDED TO PROPERTY TAXES

1. If a person owes the Town of Choiceland for costs incurred by the Town of Choiceland with respect to a dangerous animal, the Town may add the amount owing to the tax roll of any parcel of land for which the person is the assessed owner;
2. If an amount is added to the tax roll of a parcel of land pursuant to Subsection 1, the amount:
 - a. Is deemed for all purposes to be a tax imposed pursuant to The Municipalities Act from the date it was added to the tax roll; and
 - b. Forms a lien against the parcel of land in favor of the Town from the date it was added to the tax roll.

16. CRITERIA FOR MUZZLE AND LEASH FOR DANGEROUS ANIMALS

Where an animal that has been declared dangerous pursuant to Section 8 is removed from the owner's property, the animal shall be secured in accordance with the following criteria:

1. In the case of a dog:
 - a. The animal shall be equipped with a muzzle that is properly fitted on the animal to prevent it from biting any animal or person, but which does not interfere with the vision or respiration of the animal;
 - b. The animal shall be fitted with a collar or harness for the body that is properly laced or fitted on the animal;
 - c. The movement of the animal shall be controlled by a person by means of a leash attached to the collar or harness of the animal;
 - d. The leash shall not exceed 1.2 meters in length and shall be constructed of a material having a tensile strength of at least 40 kilograms.
2. In the case of a cat:
 - a. The animal shall be fitted with a harness for the body that is properly laced and fitted on the animal;
 - b. The movement of the animal shall be controlled by a person by means of a leash attached to the collar or harness of the animal;
 - c. The leash shall not exceed 1.2 meters in length and shall be constructed of a material having a tensile strength of at least 40 kilograms.
3. In the case of other animals:
 - a. The animal shall be secured in a cage or other appropriate enclosure that is deemed secure and is suitable according to the animal's size.

17. INOCULATION OF ANIMALS

1. Where an animal has been declared to be dangerous pursuant to Section 8, the owner of the animal shall, at the owner's expense and within ten days of the date of the order of the Judge declaring the animal to be dangerous, have the animal inoculated against rabies by a Veterinarian and provide proof to a designated officer that the animal has been inoculated;

2. Where the owner of an animal provides proof that the animal has been inoculated against rabies during the period of 12 months prior to the date of the order, the owner is not required to comply with Subsection 1 until the expiration of 12 months from the date of inoculation of the animal;
3. The owner of an animal shall have the animal inoculated within each 12-month period following the inoculation mentioned in Subsection 1 or 2 during the lifetime of the animal.

18. PUBLIC NOTICE

Where an animal has been declared dangerous pursuant to Section 8, the Town may issue a public notice to advise the general public of said declaration. The public notice may be communicated by way of posters, newspaper advertising or other means the Town deems appropriate.

19. ENCLOSURES FOR DANGEROUS ANIMALS

If a Judge Orders, pursuant to Section 8-7-a, that an animal be kept in an enclosure, the enclosure must comply with the following criteria:

1. The enclosure shall be constructed of wood or any other building material of sufficient strength and in a manner adequate to:
 - a. Confine the animal; and
 - b. Prevent the entry of children of tender years;
2. The entrances and other areas by which entry to or exit from the enclosure may be made shall be locked or fastened in a manner adequate to prevent the animal from escaping from the enclosure;
3. The enclosure shall be at least 3 meters in length, 1.5 meters in width and 1.8 meters in height;
4. The enclosure shall have a top secured to the sides of the enclosure;
5. The enclosure shall;
 - a. Have a floor secured to the sides of the enclosure; or
 - b. The sides of the enclosure shall be embedded in the ground to a depth of at least 0.6 meters;
6. The enclosure shall;
 - a. Provide protection from the elements for the animal;
 - b. Provide adequate light and ventilation for the animal; and
 - c. Be kept in a sanitary and clean condition.

20. SIGNS

1. Where an animal has been declared dangerous pursuant to Section 8, the owner of the animal shall, within ten days of the date of the order of the Judge declaring the animal to be dangerous, display a sign on his or her premises warning of the presence of the animal in the form attached hereto and identified as Schedule Number 1;
2. A sign required by Subsection 1 shall be placed at each entrance to the premises where the animal is kept and on the enclosure in which the animal is confined;
3. A sign required by Subsection 1 shall be clearly visible and capable of being read from any adjacent public road.

21. QUARANTINE OF ANIMALS

Where an animal has bitten a person or domestic animal, the owner of the animal shall, unless the animal is ordered humanely destroyed, quarantine the animal for observation for symptoms of rabies for a period of not less than ten days in accordance with the Animal Disease and Protection Act (Canada).

22. RABIES TEST OF ANIMALS

1. Every person who destroys an animal following the non-fatal biting of a person or domestic animal, whether the destruction is pursuant to an order of a Judge or court or at the decision of the owner of the animal, shall, if the destruction is carried out before the completion of the quarantine period described in Section 21, retain the head of the animal in a manner usable;

2. Where a person destroys an animal in the circumstances described in Subsection 1, the person shall immediately notify a Veterinarian or a peace officer that he or she is in possession of the head of an animal to be tested for rabies.

23. APPOINTMENT OF DESIGNATED OFFICERS

The Animal Control Officer and the Pound keeper appointed by the Town Of Choiceland shall be designated officers for the purposes of this Bylaw.

24. COMING INTO FORCE

This Bylaw shall come into force on the day of its final passing.
